Canvas Freewrite:

(Connect) “Tell me about a time when someone was able to persuade you to do or think something.” Be prepared to share some details about your experience with the class.

Canvas/Class discussion:

(Attend) “Share about an experience when someone was able to persuade you to do or think something.”
“What was it that the person said or did that persuaded you?”
“Is this an effective way to get people to do or think what you want them to do?”

(Imagine) “What would life be like if everyone was easily persuaded?”
“What would life be like if no one could be persuaded?”
Logos, Ethos, Pathos in Speeches
PLAYLIST

DIRECTIONS: Choose your path of learning by picking a speech to analyze rhetoric. If you earn an 80% mastery, then you may end your learning journey on this path. If you earn less than an 80% mastery of content, then you should continue your journey on this path by choosing another speech to practice your analysis skills.

CHOICES:

1. Brian Dawkins Pro Football Hall of Fame Speech
2. Steve Jobs Stanford Commencement Speech
3. Elie Wiesel Nobel Peace Prize Speech
4. Kid President’s Pep Talk